Alexandria Gazette

TUESDAY EVEN'G., JANUARY 20, 1880.

A STRANGE STORY -Legal proceedings recently instituted at Lyechburg, Va., on the part of Miss L'zzis May Robinsonagaius: J. ssc J. Mitchell and others, for extorting money and a watch, has disclosed a history of the persecution that the plaintiff has been exposed to for nearly six years from Mitchell in revenge for being dismissed from the house by the father of the lady. Her brother became involved in a scandal about a young woman and was arrested to await a criminal prosecution. He, however, escaped by the aid of his sister and CHILDREN'S WEAR, however, escaped by the aid of his sister and made his way to Texas. Mitchell precised on her fears in a thousand ways, threatening her with comiving at her brother's escape, and charged her with being the mother of an illegitimate child. Her brother, hearing of this persecution returned from Texas, and was killed in an eccounter with Mitchell, who was also seriously wounded. His recovery was the sign nal for a renewal of the persecution of the now unprotected girl. He obtained from her $500 left her by her brother, a gold watch given to her by her mother on her death bed and a bond for $2,300, with which he attempted to take possession of the plantation on the death of her father. Applying to a lawyer when she had been badgered beyond endurance, four suits were instituted against Mitchell and his aiders and abettors, Wm. E. Glass and J. C. Walton. True bills have been found and Mitchell was remanded to jail to await trial at the next term of court. The facts of the case created much excitement, and an appeal to Judge Lynch was at one time imminen; but better coursels prevailed, and the triends of the persecuted erphan are anxiously awaiting the result of an appeal to the law.

EMBROIDERIES.-We have purchased over 5,000 yards of Hamburg Edging at a great bargain, and will sell it for one week under its value. Call and see them at I. Eichberg's.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE FOR 1880

The Alexandria Gazette, begun in 1790, is the oldest newspaper in Virginia, and it has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives too, not in decay or decrepit, but full of life and youthful vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest udgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but two exceptions, the only paper between Baltimore and Richmend that is thus connected with the great fountains of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as past experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the capacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Common wealth of Virginia.

The year 1880 will be a period of critical interest in both the Union and the Commonwealth. The election of the eighteenth President of the United States will take place, with all the combinations precedent, and counts; consequences and settlements subsequent, will call for record in the coming volume. The developments of the financial situation, which may portend sfiluence and comfort or poverty and privation to thousands, are now in progress, and the columns of the Gazette will note each step as well as chronicle the result. A new and striking foreign policy is among likely events, and the absorbing interest of it cannot be overestimated. In Virgin'a there is political chaes and industrial and commercial depression. The way out of this quagmire will fill many of those paragraphs with information of rare interest.

To meet all the demands upon it in an exceptional year, the Gezette will be made a WASH-INGTON and RICHMOND NEWSPAPER as well as an ALEXANDRIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of the past year has left little to improve, but yet greater effort will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the Intelligence of that section of the Commonwealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assiduously

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking cara as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore, Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria sales ficattle will appear.

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandris and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c , which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The beginning of the New Year, which in this case marks the advent of another decade of the world's progress, is deemed a fit time for new features, so that from this date the Gazette for the country (tri-weekly) will be supplied at FOUR DOLLARS per annum, in advance.
